Thanksgiving Feast... Proceeded by worship led by Pastor Kathleen Koran.... And followed by the Thanksgiving-day nap!

“Give Thanks
 with a Grateful Heart!”

Have you ever heard of a Thanksgiving Retreat before? Russell O’Leary hadn’t until a few years ago when his wife, Karen, registered their family to attend. Russ admits he wasn’t looking forward to that first retreat. But, once they arrived and he began to experience the time with his family, he really began to enjoy himself. Now Russ and his family love the retreat and look forward to returning. The retreat included the traditional turkey dinner as well as programmed activities and lots of time for fellowship with our ever-growing extended Koinonia family. This year we shared worship and dinner together with over 60 people...and we even had enough turkey and fixings for our ‘parade of leftovers’ on Thursday evening. Next year’s retreat will be: Nov. 24-26th.

Advent... A time of preparation!
 “The Bells are Ringing
 Are you Listening?”

Steve Lee and Jim Bussing work together to hang the lights as we raise Koinonia’s giant Christmas tree in preparation for our first Advent retreat of the season.

“It doesn’t really seem like Christmas if we haven’t been to Advent together.”, commented Erika Smith as she and her Mom were preparing to go home following their tradition of attending the Advent I family retreat.
